

NEW PROJECTS

The Rawls Springs Utility District is in the process of upgrading water services through a USDA loan. This upgrade replaces older service lines and expands water services to adjacent areas.

The Rawls Springs Utility District has applied for a Community Block Development Grant to upgrade waste water services.